

Please do not allow Bell South and other large phone companies to stop regulatory review of their broadband pricing. This will allow them to have a virtual monopoly of control over the ISP market, forcing out independent companies and giving consumers like me too limited a choice of ISP provider. I don't want to give Bell South and other large phone companies the entire ISP market at the expense of competition.